

Maurizio Nicolini – Artistic Biography

Nationality: Italian  Maurizio Nicolini, pianist , singer , and percussionist , was born in the coastal town of Varazze, Liguria. Raised in a classical music environment, he studied at the Conservatory of Genoa "Niccolò Paganini", specializing in piano and percussion instruments. He then continued his studies at the prestigious Conservatory of Versailles, Paris, refining his artistic skills.

Early Career

He began as a percussionist in prominent symphony orchestras and opera theaters, including:

- Sanremo Symphony Orchestra
- RAI Radiotelevisione Italiana Orchestra, Milan
- Teatro Carlo Felice Orchestra, Genoa

International Collaborations

He shared the stage and collaborated with world-famous artists:

Mstislav Rostropovich, Gerry Mulligan, Luciano Pavarotti, Krzysztof Penderecki, Massimiliano Damerini, Salvatore Accardo

Light Music & Productions

Thanks to his collaboration with uncle Franco Delfino – composer of over 1000 Italian pop songs – he focused on international light and electronic music, collaborating with various artists and producing several CDs

Exclusive Concerts

Participated for two consecutive years in private concerts at Castel Gandolfo for Pope John Paul II

Experiences & Collaborations

Performed in prestigious venues:

Luxury hotels , restaurants , lounge bars , private events , theaters , oceanic  and river cruise ships

Collaborates regularly with high-level musicians and bands, adapting to different artistic formats.

Current Activities

Currently living in Poland, he continues performing across Europe and beyond as pianist, singer, and percussionist.

Also works as a teacher and sound engineer in his recording studio.

Repertoire

Classical , swing jazz , country , rock , evergreen

Performing pieces in Italian , English , French , Spanish , Portuguese , and Polish

Languages

Italian (native) , English , French , Spanish , Polish

Maurizio Nicolini

2 2 -1 0 -2 0 2 5